

at Parameter

Identifies the start and end point of the pattern to interest.

Parameter inputs are in the form of x, y where x and y are positive integers indicating the starting character and ending character, respectively, of the pattern of interest.

- x must be less than y .
- If y is greater than the length of the value, the pattern is defined to the end of the value, and a match is made.